Suffolk Coastal District Council elections - 5 May 2011

The results in brief ...

The Conservatives retained control of the Council by winning 44 seats at the elections held on 5 May 2011. The Liberal Democrats secured 5 seats, Labour 4 seats, and 2 independent councillors were elected (one Independent, one Community Independent).

The Conservatives lost two seats (one in Leiston to a Community Independent and one in Felixstowe North to Labour) but gained one in Felixstowe West. The Liberal Democrats lost four seats overall (all three in Felixstowe West, and also Yoxford where the sitting councillor was re-elected as an Independent). Labour gained three in Felixstowe North and West.

16 new councillors were elected - Terry-Jill Howarth, Kimberley Williams, Stuart Bird, Margaret Morris, Michael Sharman, Chris Hudson, Tony Fryatt, Graham Peck, Jane Marson, Tony Cooper, Terry Eastman, Mark Newton, John Withey, Susan Harvey, Michael Gower, and Josh Sayles.

39 of the 42 councillors seeking re-election were successful - the three that were not were Harry Dangerfield, Michael Ninnmey, and Sherrie Green.

Two candidates were elected without a contest, as the Council's current Leader, Ray Herring was the only person nominated for the Orford and Tunstall ward, and Phillip Dunnett was the only person nominated for the Snape ward.
