

West Oxfordshire District Council Election Results

on Thursday 22 May 2014

This document consists of the “Declaration of Result” for each of the 17 Wards of the West Oxfordshire District in which there were elections on Thursday 22 May.

Click on the links below to go the Result for a particular Ward. Alternatively, use the “bookmarks” tab to navigate the document or “find” to search for a name.

The following may also be of interest:

- Of the 17 seats up for election 15 were won by Conservative candidates and one each by Labour and Liberal Democrat Candidates
- The 10 sitting councillors seeking re-election were all successful
- The political balance of the Council following the elections is 40 Conservative; one Independent; five Labour; and three Liberal Democrat
- The persons elected will serve a four year term of office, with the exception of the Stonesfield and Tackley Ward – in that case, the election was to fill a vacancy following a resignation, and the person elected will serve until May 2016
